The following instructions apply to columns 33 to 46:

Columns 33, 34, and 35. Tribal relations. If the Indian was born in the United States, answer questions 12, 13, and 14, relating to the state or territory, or foreign country, in which the person and parents of each person were born, if possible, by inquiries 12, 13, and 14, relating to the state or territory, or foreign country, in which the person and parents of each person were born, if possible, by inquiries. In any event, take particular pains to secure the name of the tribe with which the person and parents of each person are identified, and enter the name of the tribe of each in columns 33, 34, and 35. If the Indian is of mixed blood, and the name of the tribe of each of his or her parents, and enter the name of the tribe of each in columns 33, 34, and 35.

Columns 36, 37, and 38. Proportions of Indian and other blood. If the Indian is of full blood, write "Full" in column 36, and leave columns 37 and 38 blank. If the Indian is of mixed blood, write in columns 36, 37, and 38 the fractions which show the proportions of Indian and other blood, as 1/2, 1/4, 1/8, etc. Thus, if the Indian is one-half white and one-half Indian, write 1/2 in column 36, 1/2 in column 37, and 0 in column 38. For Indians of mixed blood all three columns should be filled in, the sum of which, in each case, should equal 1, as 1/2, 0, 1/2; 1/4, 0, 3/4; 1/8, 1/8, 3/4, etc.

Wherever possible, the statement that an Indian is of full blood should be verified by reference to the records of the tribe, as an Indian is sometimes of mixed blood without knowing it.

An Indian is to be considered "taxed" if owning property or paying taxes of any kind whatever, whether he or she lives on a reservation or elsewhere, and whether he or she actually pays taxes or not; or if he or she is living with his or her tribe, but is not a citizen of the United States, and thereby has acquired citizenship. In either of these two cases write "Yes" in this column.

An Indian on a reservation, without an allotment, or roaming over unsettled territory is considered "not taxed," and for such Indians the answer to this inquiry is "No."

Column 44. If Indian has received allotment, give year of allotment. If the Indian has received an allotment of land, enter, in column 44, the year in which the allotment was made.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING THIS SCHEDULE.

This modified form of the general schedule for population is used in the enumeration of both those on reservations and those living in family groups on allotted lands.

Detached Indians living either in white or negro families or in the general population schedule (Form 1) the Indian members of the family or negroes living in Indian families should be enumerated on the regular population schedule families in which they are found. In other words, every family composed in part or wholly of Indians should be enumerated on this special schedule, and every family composed entirely of persons of white or negro blood should be enumerated on the general population schedule.

Spaces are provided for entries for 20 persons on each sheet. A number of lines are left blank between each family, running twice to the page. Columns 1 to 42 are to be filled for each person enumerated, in accordance with the following instructions.

Columns 1 to 32. These columns are practically self-explanatory, and should be filled in accordance with the instructions for the general population schedule (see back of instructions), but note that the numbers in columns 1 and 2, column 7, and columns 18 and 19.

Columns 1 and 2. Visitation numbers. If the enumeration is made on the general population schedule (Form 1) and this schedule for Indians is used as a supplemental schedule, the numbers for these columns, one series in each kind of schedule, should be carried forward from the last number in column 1 on the general population schedule, and, likewise, the last number in column 2 on the general population schedule will give the whole number of families enumerated on both schedules.

Column 7. Age at last birthday. Some Indians may not know their exact ages, but frequently reckon their ages from notable events occurring at or near the time of birth. Try to ascertain the years in which these notable events occurred, and with the aid of a calendar be able to ascertain the exact ages of such Indians.

Columns 18 and 19. Occupation. If the Indian is a child, write "child" in column 18 and leave column 19 blank. If the Indian is wholly self-supporting, write "self-supporting" in column 18. If the Indian is partly self-supporting and partly dependent upon the Government, write "partly" in columns 18 and 19, and then the letter "R" (for ration).

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING THIS SCHEDULE.

This modified form of the general schedule for population is to be used in connection with the general population schedule in the enumeration of Indians both those on reservations and those living in family groups outside of reservations.

Detached Indians living either in white or negro families or in tribal groups should be enumerated on this special schedule. Indians living in white or negroes living in Indian families should be enumerated on this special schedule. Indians living in white families should be enumerated on the general population schedule in the families in which they are found. In other words, every family composed entirely or in part of Indians should be enumerated entirely on this special schedule, as every family composed entirely of persons other than Indians should be enumerated entirely on the general population schedule.

Spaces are provided for entries for 30 persons on each side. A and B of the sheet, numbered consecutively from 1 to 60, running twice to the page. Columns 1 to 46 are to be filled for each Indian. See special instructions.

Columns 1 to 32. These columns are identical with those on the general population schedule, and are to be filled in so far as the inquiry applies, in accordance with the instructions for filling the corresponding columns of the general population schedule (see book of instructions), but note the following additional instructions relating to columns 1 and 2, column 7, and columns 18 and 19:

Columns 1 and 2. Visitation numbers. If, in canvassing a given locality, you find Indians living in families for which no population schedule (Form s. 1570) and this schedule for Indian population, make two entries for these families, one series in each kind of schedule, so that the last number in column 1 on the general population schedule will give the whole number of families visited and enumerated in that locality, and, likewise, the last number in column 2 on this schedule added to the last number in column 1 on the same population schedule will give the whole number of families visited and enumerated.

Column 7. Age at last birthday. Some difficulty may be met in ascertaining the ages of Indians, as they frequently reckon their ages from notable events occurring in the history of their tribe. It will be necessary to ascertain the years in which these notable events occurred, and with a little patient questioning you will be able to ascertain the exact age of each Indian.

Columns 18 and 19. Occupation. If the Indian is wholly self-supporting enter his occupation in columns 18 and 19 in accordance with the general instructions for entering occupations. If the Indian is a child—has no occupation and is wholly dependent on the Government for support—leave blank columns 18 and 19. If the Indian is partly self-supporting and partly dependent upon the Government enter his occupation in columns 18 and 19, and then the letter "R" (for ration).

The following instructions apply to columns 33 to 46:

Columns 33, 34, and 35. Tribal relations.—If the Indian was born in the country answers should be obtained, if possible, to inquiries 12, 13, and 14, relating to the state or territory of birth of the person and of his or her parents. In any event, take particular pains to secure the name of the tribe with which the person is connected, and the name of the tribe of each of his or her parents, and enter the same in columns 33, 34, and 35.

Columns 36, 37, and 38. Proportions of Indian and other blood.—If the Indian is a full blood, write "Full" in column 36, and leave columns 37 and 38 blank. If the Indian is of mixed blood, write a fraction in 36, and in the fractions which show the proportions of Indian and other blood, as indicated in columns 36, Indian; 37, White; and (column 38, negro) 0. For Indians of mixed blood all three columns should be filled, and the sum in each case, should equal 1, as 1, 0, 0; 1/2, 1/2, 0; 1/2, 1/4, 1/4; etc.

Wherever possible, the statement that an Indian is of full blood should be verified by inquiry of the older men of the tribe, as an Indian is sometimes of mixed blood without knowing it.

Column 39. Number of times married.—If the Indian is married, enter in this column the number of times he or she has been married.

Column 40. Whether now living in polygamy.—If the Indian man is living with more than one wife, write "Yes" in this column; otherwise, write "No."

Column 41. If living in polygamy, whether the wives are sisters.—If the Indian man is living with more than one wife, and if his wives are sisters, write "Yes" in this column. If his wives are not sisters write "No."

Column 42. Graduated from what educational institution.—If the Indian is a graduate of any educational institution, give the name and location of such institution.

Column 43. Is this Indian taxed?—An Indian is to be considered "taxed" if he or she is detached from his or her tribe and is living among white people as an individual, and as such is subject to taxation (whether he or she actually pays taxes or not); or if he or she is living with his or her tribe but has received an allotment of land, and thereby has acquired citizenship. In either of these two cases write "Yes" in this column.

An Indian on a reservation, without an allotment, or roaming over unsettled territory is considered "not taxed," and for such Indians the answer to this inquiry is "No."

Column 44. If Indian has received allotment, give year of allotment.—If the Indian has received an allotment of land, enter, in column 44, the year in which the allotment was made.

Column 45. Residing on his own lands.—If the Indian lives on his or her own land, write "Yes" in this column; if the Indian lives elsewhere, write "No."

Column 46. Living in civilized or aboriginal dwelling.—If the Indian is living in a house of civilized design, as a log, frame, brick, or stone house, write "Civ." (for civilized) in this column; but if the Indian is living in a dwelling of aboriginal design, as a tent, tepee, cliff dwelling, etc., write "Aber." (for aboriginal).
